

Bulhary

12-13.08.2022

Co-funded by the European Union

Citizens' engagement and participation

PROGRAM

Friday 12.08.2022

- Open Europe - presenting opportunities for young people who want to study, work or travel in the EU
- Presentation of the functioning of voluntary organizations - volunteering and its benefits and assistance at various levels: best practices
- The EU's benefits and achievements - bringing the EU closer to its citizens
- „We have succeeded in Europe!“ - presentation of important natives working in beneficial high positions – best practices
- Exhibition of wines
- The impact of EU policies on citizens' daily lives - discussions
- „On a folk note“ - Cultural performances of senior groups to preserve customs and traditions
- Minorities - real stories of the integration of minority citizens into the society of another culture
- Social Europe - steps it takes to eliminate social exclusion and poverty in society
- Culture of nations - National customs and traditions presented by seniors

Saturday 13.08.2022

- Tasting of local wines of this year combined with a visit to the region
- Climate change and environmental challenges - workshop
- Rising Euro-scepticism and its implications for the future of the Union - expert debates
- Traditional culture of nations - folklore performances
- Active aging - combating old age diseases and trying to be useful - discussions
- Presentation of projects aimed at minorities living in the territory of the partners
- Let's clean up Europe - A multigenerational environmental activity where voluntary participants engage in an environmental activity
- Active citizen in modern European self - government - examples of active citizens - Best practices
- European Solidarity Corps - presentation of a youth program that provides an opportunity to volunteer

EN